We're committed to increasing diversity in the financial sector and we actively encourage applications from those currently under-represented. We're keen to receive applications from Black, Asian and minority ethnic people; people with disabilities; people who identify as being LGTBQIA; people who have a mental health condition; and people who identify as working class or have done so in the past.

If you identify with any of these terms and would like to tell us about them, please do so overleaf.

Why do you want to be a Finance Innovation Lab Fellow?

What do you hope to gain from the programme?

Briefly outline the idea, product or service you're working on.

[Empty response box]

How does your idea address financial health issues? You may find it useful to refer to the 'What' section of our Selection Criteria in responding to this question.
